Isaiah 30, 29
Psalm 100

Joyfully (♩ = 112)

Flute mf

Keyboard mf

The introduction consists of two systems. The first system shows a Flute part in treble clef with a melodic line starting on a whole note, followed by eighth-note runs. The Keyboard part is in grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a similar melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. Both parts are marked mf.

Unison Voices mf

1. You shall have a song and

The second system features Unison Voices in treble clef, with lyrics "1. You shall have a song and". A circled number "5" is placed above the final note of the first phrase. The Keyboard accompaniment continues in grand staff, providing harmonic support for the vocal line.

glad - ness of heart, for mu - sic can joy - ful - ly our 10

The third system continues the Unison Voices part with lyrics "glad - ness of heart, for mu - sic can joy - ful - ly our". A circled number "10" is placed above the first measure of this system. The Keyboard accompaniment continues in grand staff.
